SALES TEAM | Computer Connection

March 2024 - Present

I am responsible for communicating with every customer. I also mastered building and repairing desktop computers.

HOST | Logan's Roadhouse

May 2021 - August 2021

I was the first face customers saw upon entering the restaurant. I was responsible for greeting, seating, and cleaning tables. This taught me to work hard under a stressful environment.

PROJECTS

Personal Website | snub-yeah.github.io/Resume-Website

Created a personal website using React. The website works as a hub for all of my links and information. It contains art I created using Aseprite.

Drawing Application

A drawing application with all the basic functionality. Created with Java and JavaFX, it allows users to paint with variable brush sizes, erase, fill in a shape with color, and undo.
